Field of the Invention The present invention relates to a data record/playback apparatus having a function to be capable of recording video or audio data which are handled at a higher speed than a predetermined speed and a method therefor. 2. Description of the Related Art Heretofore, many data record/playback apparatuses have been known which are designed to attain a high speed data transfer through a large-capacity memory. On the other hand, according to the conventional data record/playback apparatus, generally, a transfer speed of data to be stored in a memory is reduced according to a recording rate so that a corresponding long time is required for data transfer. This results in an increased waiting time which deteriorates the recording/playback efficiency. In order to reduce the waiting time, it is proposed to record data at a high speed, however, there is a limitation to this approach for the following reasons. In general, a typical recording medium used by a data record/play
